ABOUT

Jaydin Shingleton is a powerhouse country artist from New Zealand, now based on the Gold Coast, Australia. Known for his soulful voice, heartfelt songwriting, and magnetic stage presence, Jaydin blends modern country with rock and blues influences to deliver emotionally driven performances that resonate long after the final note.

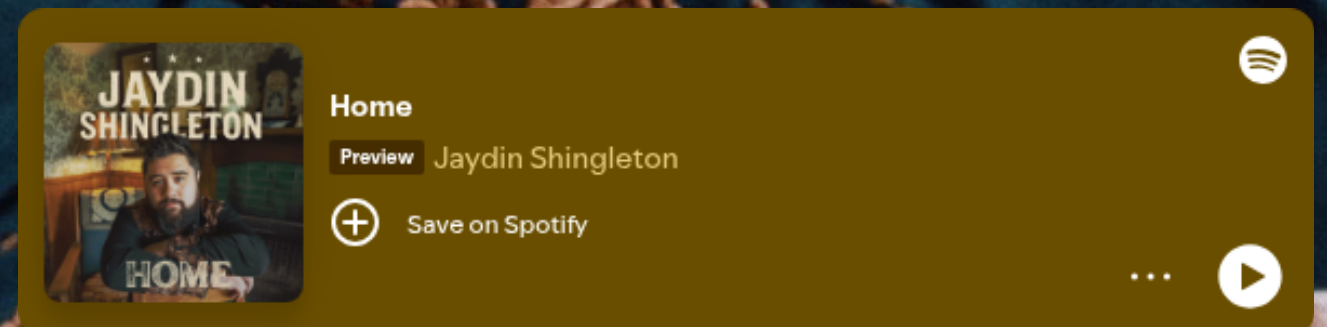

In 2026, Jaydin was named a Top 10 Finalist in Toyota Star Maker at the Tamworth Country Music Festival, cementing his place as one of Australasia's most exciting emerging country artists. He rose to national attention on The Voice Australia Season 13, progressing through to the Semi Finals after his rendition of Tennessee Whiskey turned all four chairs and led to a historic battle moment. The first time all coaches used their saves in the show's history.

Now firmly building his career in Australia, Jaydin is appearing across several major Australian country music festivals this year, with his name set to feature on even more lineups as his profile continues to grow. With fresh inspiration drawn from his move to Australia, Jaydin has new music on the way influenced by Australian artists, family life, and an exciting new chapter. His latest single, Home, reflects his journey between New Zealand and Australia, capturing the emotion of distance, belonging, and chasing long held dreams.

"For me that was a perfect voice with all the right amounts of everything - nothing was overcooked." Guy Sebastian - Voice Australia 2024.

TOYOTA STAR MAKER 2026

Jaydin's year started off with a bang at the Tamworth Country Music Festival by being part of the coveted Toyota Star Maker as a Top 10 finalists, a massive moment for him within his first year of living in Australia. Although he didn't win, he takes pride and gratitude that people throughout the streets of Tamworth and on social media stood by him, praising his performance and wishing he had won in their opinion. Jaydin states that he walked off the stage proud of his performance and feels he left everything on that stage. In his eyes, he's won in other ways

THE VOICE

Launched in Australia to a huge screen audience in late 2024 as a semi-finalist on the Voice, twenty six year old, kiwi country music artist Jaydin Shingleton's dynamic voice & performances are no stranger to success.

"I went into the blind auditions hoping to turn at least one chair and had all four judges - Guy Sebastian, Adam Lambert, Kate Miller-Heidke and LeAnn Rimes fighting over me. Just nuts!!." Jaydin. Radio New Zealand. 2024.

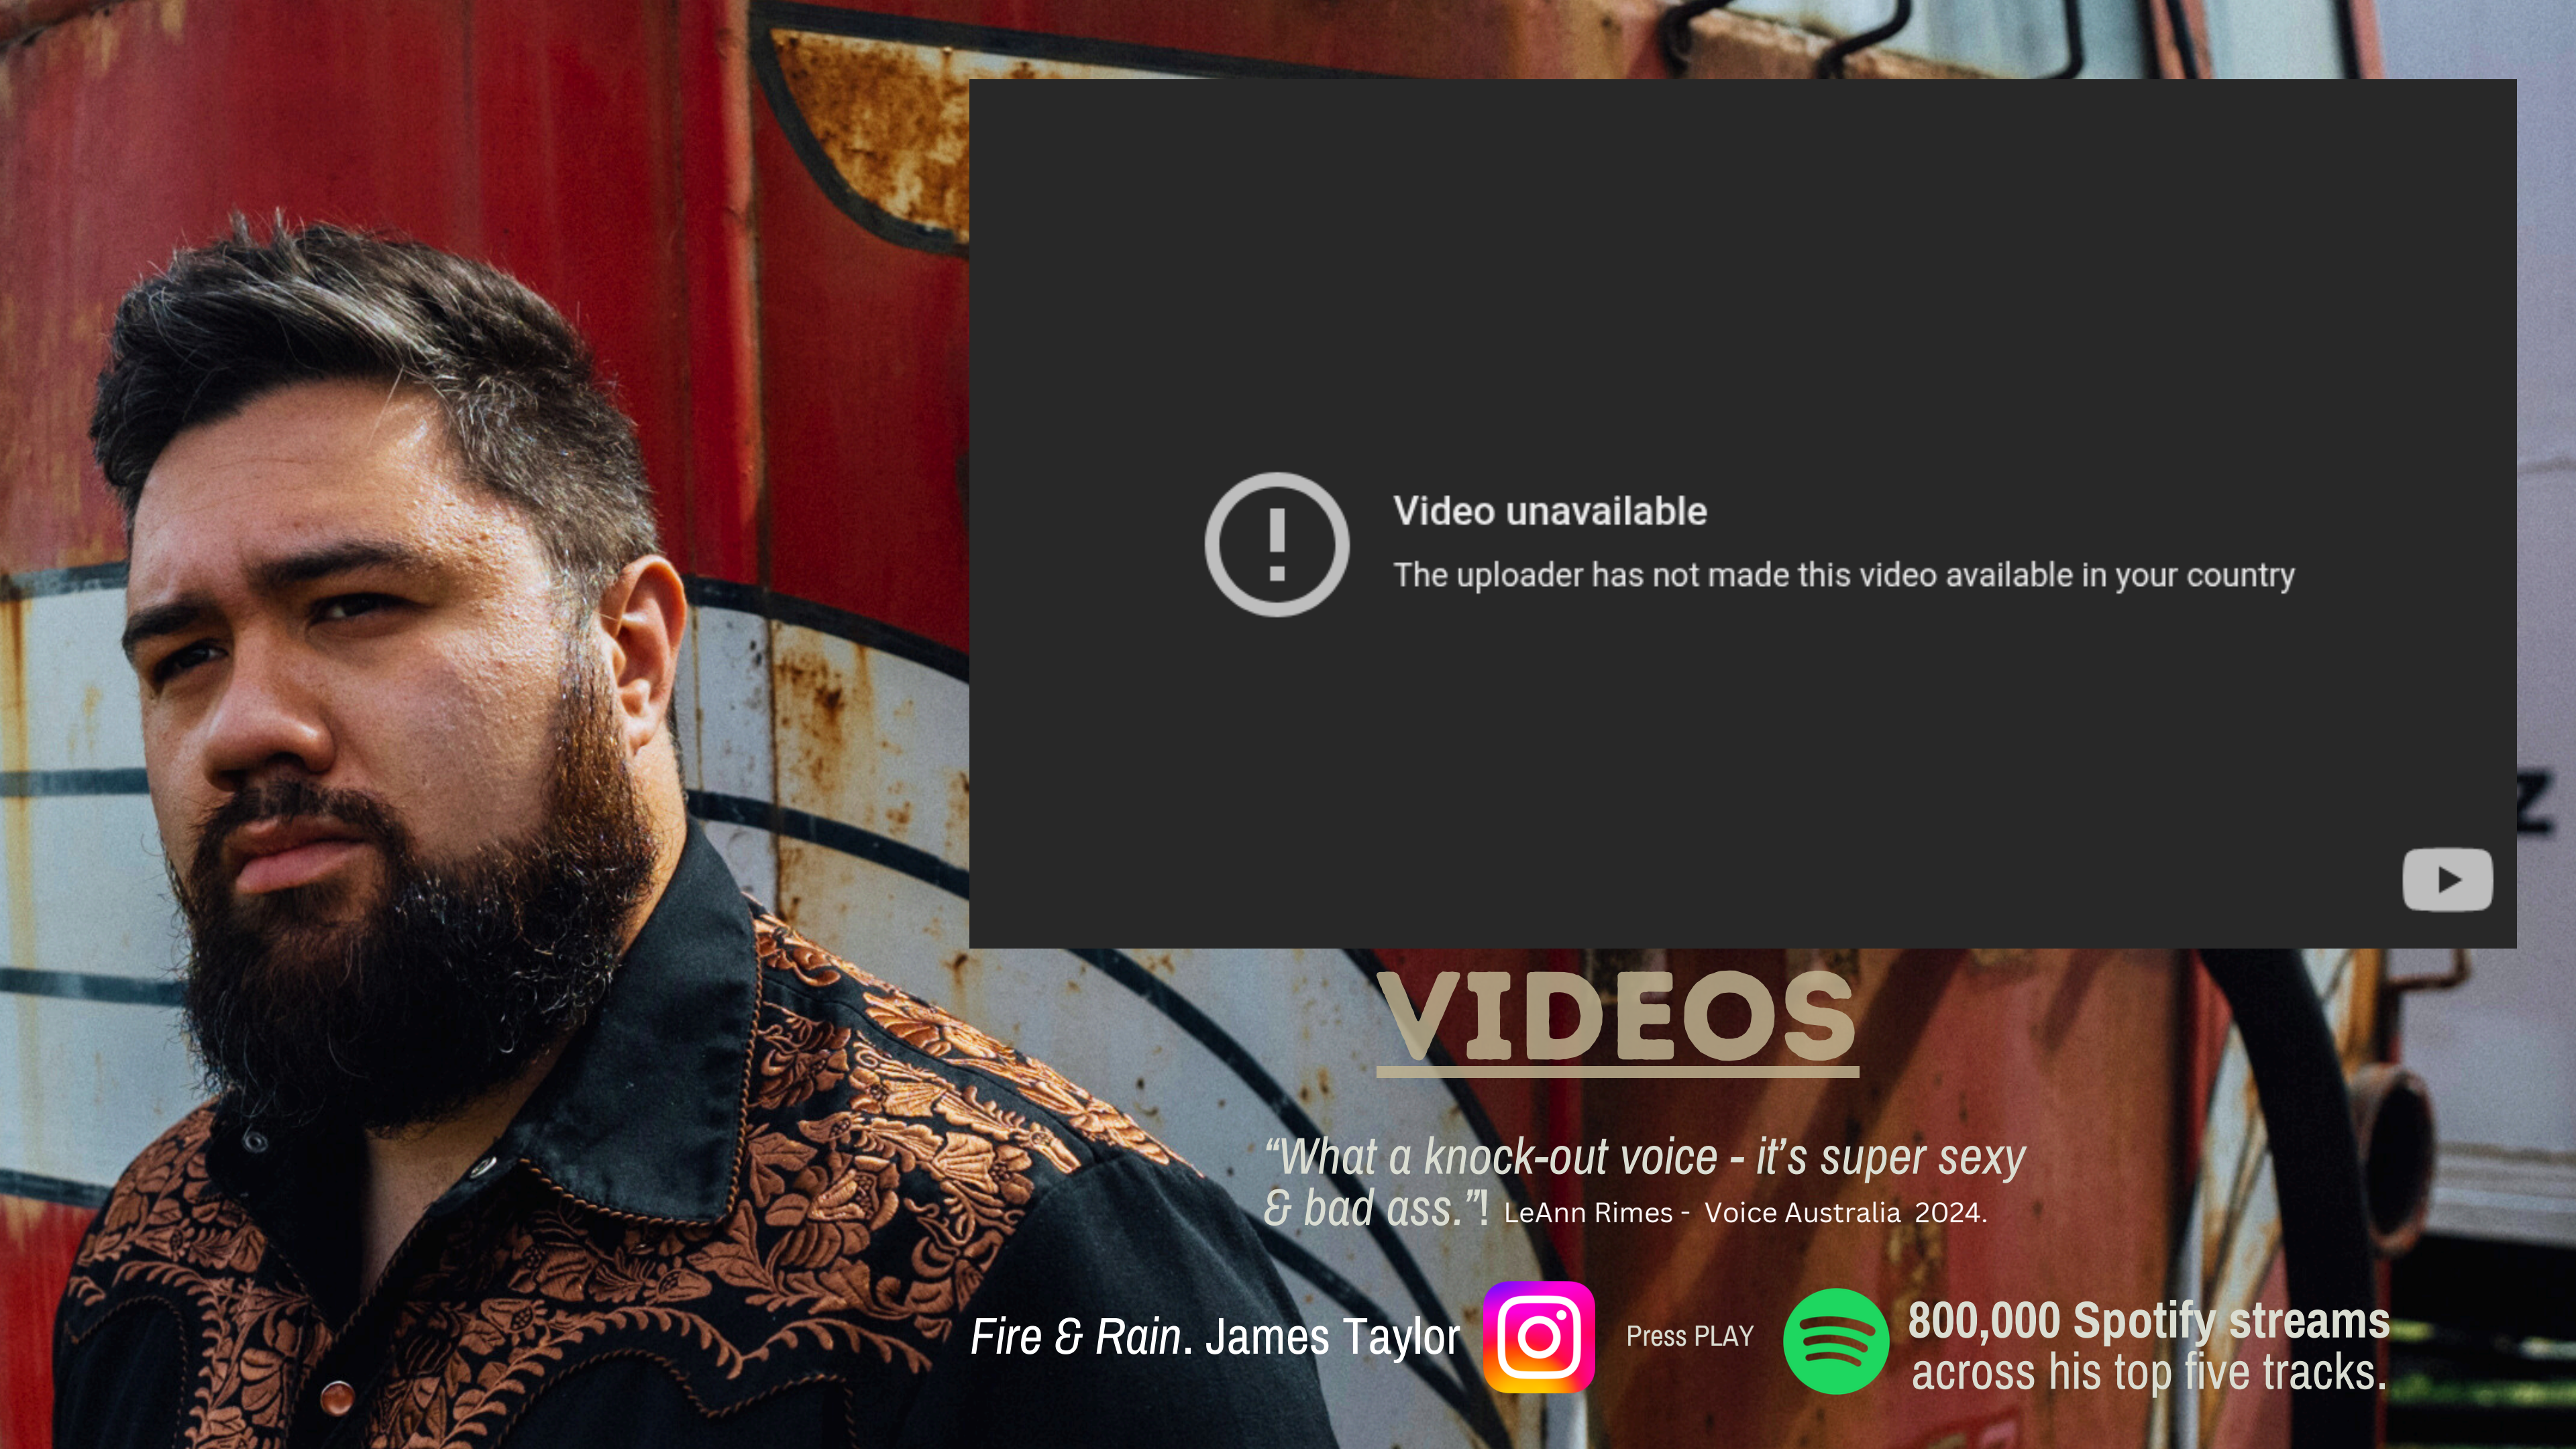

He is the only artist in the Voice's thirteen year history to receive all four coaches saves.
